Pastor Appreciation Month

Each October, we have a special opportunity to honor and appreciate the pastors God has called to serve His Church. We are blessed by faithful men and women who have answered the call of God and taken up the responsibility of serving, shepherding, and leading His people.

Pastoral ministry extends far beyond Sunday morning. Pastors spend countless hours praying, preparing, counseling, visiting, encouraging, leading, and walking alongside people through some of life's greatest joys and most difficult seasons. Much of that ministry happens quietly and behind the scenes.

During Pastor Appreciation Month, take a moment to remind your pastors that their ministry matters and that they are loved. Here are a few simple ways you can show your appreciation:

- Pray intentionally for your pastor and their family.
- Write a personal card or note sharing how their ministry has impacted you.
- Offer a thoughtful gift or take them out for a meal.
- Look for a practical way to lighten their load or serve their family.
- Speak words of encouragement—not only this month, but throughout the year.

A simple expression of gratitude can mean more than you realize. Let's be intentional about honoring those who faithfully serve and care for the people of God.

To our pastors across Kentucky, I want to take this opportunity to simply say thank you.

Thank you for answering the call of God and faithfully serving the people He has entrusted to your care. Thank you for the sermons prepared, prayers prayed, hospital rooms visited, difficult conversations navigated, and countless acts of ministry that few people will ever see. Your faithfulness matters.

Pastoral ministry is both a tremendous privilege and a sacred responsibility. My prayer is that during this Pastor Appreciation Month, you will be reminded that you are not alone in the work God has called you to do. Your ministry is making an eternal difference in the lives of people, families, churches, and communities across our state.

I am grateful to serve alongside each of you. May the Lord strengthen you, encourage your family, refresh your spirit, and give you renewed joy for the work ahead.
